

I believe that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. It would reduce my right to privacy. This should be a higher right than any company's right to try and sell me something over the phone. It's bad enough to have to listen to commercials that have the volume so much higher than the normal programming now!!